

WESTCHESTER COUNTY,

YONKERS.

Michael Mahoney and his wife, Helen, on Friday night tried to frighten Mrs. Mary Mahoney, the mother of Michael. When she entered her home at No. 1 Hawthorne-ave., she noticed that there seemed to be no one astir in her daughter-in-law's apartments on the floor above. She went to investigate. As she entered one of the bedrooms she discovered her son and his wife lying on the floor. Both groaned aloud. The next instant Mrs. Mahoney was attracted by a quantity of party green on a chair close by the prostrate couple. Believing that they had attempted suicide, she called for Dr. James T. Gibson who summoned and the police were informed. An effort was promptly given to save the young woman, who appears to be in her eighteenth month, but no脉 was taken as a result. The authorities were suspicious at once, and under cross-examination the man admitted that they had acted as they did to frighten his wife.

The Rev. Mr. Horgan, of this city, in the case of Hannah Flood against Philip Flood and others, as executors of the estate of Thomas Flood, was tried in the Supreme Court of Westchester yesterday. The plaintiff has down rights in the estate of her husband, which she avers, consisted of property. The referee finds that the plaintiff is entitled to her former right in all the property, and that the value of the estate is $200.

SING SING.

Mrs. William Miller has issued invitations for the marriage of her niece, Miss Frances Louise Armstrong, to John Hancock Douglas Grinnell, to take place in Trinity Episcopal Church on November 1.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allen Hart have issued cards for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Sarah Alice Hart, to George N. Nichols, of Yonkers, on October 26, in their home, No. 88 South Highland-ave.

The marriage of George S. McCord and Kate Brewster, both of New York, is announced to take place on Wednesday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, Harlowton, in that village.

The Rev. Harry G. Fisher, who for ten years conducted the New York Mission, in this village, will play a series of concerts at work to improve the old Spanish road leading south from the city.

CARLTON COOPER, Superior of Clerks, the secretary of the delegation of its present business leaders, The Rev. James A. McWilliams, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will make an address.

Warden Johnson of Sing Sing to-morrow will play a series of concerts at work to improve the old Spanish road leading south from the city.

CARLTON COOPER, Superior of Clerks, the secretary of the delegation of its present business leaders, The Rev. James A. McWilliams, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will make an address.

PORT CHESTER.

Patrick Jordan, sixty-five years old, of No. 155 Pearl-st., a workman employed on the new bridge across the Hudson River, in Newburgh, fell from a scaffolding and was killed. Mr. Jordan leaves behind him two daughters, Thomas Jordan, Rosalie, of the town of Rye, is 18, and

The Republicans of the town of Rye have elected ex-congressman W. H. Ward and Justice A. F. Gaylor, their county committeemen.

Plans have been drawn for the new Summerfield Methodist Episcopal Church. The total cost, including the furnishings, is estimated at $40,000.

WHITE PLAINS.

Frank Price, of Peekskill, who was appointed receiver for the Peckskill Furniture Company a few days ago, yesterday fled his bond in the sum of $100,000, approved by Justice Gaynor, in the County Clerk's office.

At a formal meeting yesterday Justice Marcan heard representations in opposition to confirm the report of the Committee of Adjustment in the case of the Mamakonock Water Company against Jane Pick and others. Jane N. Miller, of New York, presented the report, noting that the Committee had made their awards in a wrong theory, and that his efforts were unfairly treated. Justice Marcan adjourned the case to October 26, to give Mr. Miller time to file his appeal.

The appointment was made yesterday of the marriage of Miss Una Pace, the daughter of Dr. H. A. Pace and Clarence J. Reynolds, organist of the Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church.

The wedding will take place on July 1st, at the parsonage of the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church, the Rev. Dr. Hodder officiating.

PEEKSKILL.

Dan Ferris, the market gardener, has been designated by the Federal Department of Agriculture as an "Excellent nurseryman," through the recommendation of Professor M. G. Kains, of the University of Hawaii, who recently visited Peekskill.

The Rev. Dr. Charles L. Thompson, secretary of the Board of Home Missions of the Protestant Episcopal Church, was working at the First Presbyterian Church, and this evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Peekskill was almost in darkness on Friday evening. The gas was growing poorer and less for a week, and on Friday night there was little light. Candles and lamps were brought into use in stores and houses not supplied with electric lights. A new plant is being built.

MOUNT VERNON.

Julius F. Schatz, of West Mount Vernon, was arraigned before Judge Schatz yesterday charged with assault with intent to kill. The complainant, Abraham Freedman, of No. 35 South Terrace-ave., told Judge Schatz that early yesterday he caught Schatz and another man in his barn, when he could not distinguish them in the dark, picked up a stick and beat him on the right side, inflicting a painful wound. Schatz pleaded not guilty, but made no explanation of why he was in the barn. The case was adjourned until October 26, when it will be set for trial.

Swami Abhedananda, of India, will resume his lectures on the Vedanta philosophy under the auspices of the Vedanta Society of New York, this afternoon at 3 o'clock in Tuxedo Hall, Fifty-ninth and Madison-ave. The lectures will be continued throughout the winter season on Sunday afternoons at 3 o'clock. Classes and other meetings will be held in the week in the office and library rooms of the Vedanta Society, at No. 16 East Fifty-fifth-st. The subject of the opening lecture will be "Philosophy and Religion."

At a meeting of the Board of Officers of the New-England Society last Thursday resolutions were adopted expressing the sorrow of the society at the recent death of its treasurer, William Dowd.

A vaudeville performance and a dance for the Fellow Citizenship Association of the East Side Settlement will be given on Thursday evening beginning at 8:30 o'clock, in the assembly room of Terrace Garden, No. 15 East Fifty-eighth, No. Twenty-ninth-st. It will be illustrated with lantern slides.

The steamer Hazel Kirk, which was sunk off Bay-st., Jersey City, on Wednesday evening by the tug J. W. Devoe, was raised yesterday by the Sixty Wrecking Company.

The Charity Organization Society appeals for $200 toward the support of a family, consisting of a mother and five children, varying in age from fifteen years to a year and a half. The oldest child is a boy, the only wage earner. The husband is a drunkard and treats his wife brutally, but is not present out of the city. Any money for this case sent to the Charity Organization Society, No. 208 East Twenty-second-st., will be promptly and publicly acknowledged.

SEAMAN ON THE VALENTIN INJURED.

C. W. Urquhart, thirty-seven years old, a seaman on the steam yacht Valentia, owned by W. K. Vanderbilt, fell through a hatchway early yesterday and sustained a fractured skull. He is paralyzed from the waist down, and is not expected to recover. The Valentia was lying at the cotton docks, Staten Island, and the injured man was removed to the Smith Infirmary. Urquhart is a native of England and has no relatives in this country.

THE first drag hunt this season of the Westchester Hunt Club was held in Rye yesterday, starting from Port Chester at 8 p.m. E. S. Morgan, of White Plains, was master of the hounds, and about a dozen persons from Rye and White Plains took part in the chase, which, through Westchester-ave., and past the estate of Joseph Park.

NAT C. GOODWIN'S RETURN.

WHAT HE WILL DO THIS SEASON—ENGLISH INTEREST IN YACHT RACES.

Nat C. Goodwin and Miss Maxine Elliott arrived here from Southampton and London on the New-York. They have been abroad since May, and spent the most of the time in London.

Sgt. Mac Cullough, master of an inquiry into the death of Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., in New York, yesterday left for Boston to continue his investigation.

Colonel Henry Henshaw, who left with his family the lower part of the month for a trip abroad, said they will visit Japan, China, India and the Holy Land, returning by way of Paris.

RYE.

The first drag hunt this season of the Westchester Hunt Club was held in Rye yesterday, starting from Port Chester at 8 p.m. E. S. Morgan, of White Plains, was master of the hounds, and about a dozen persons from Rye and White Plains took part in the chase, which, through Westchester-ave., and past the estate of Joseph Park.

THE BRIDGE BREAKERS, WHICH HAD BEEN VACATED AT WHITE PLAINS.

As a special term of the Supreme Court at White Plains yesterday Justice J. T. Mather granted the decree of divorce obtained in September, 1897, by those divorced against his wife, Bettina Girard, the actress, who was Elizabeth Ordway, the daughter of George Ordway of Washington. The application to set aside the decree was not opposed as the court did in July of last year.

After the announcement of the decree upon the ground that there was no concurrence of the proceeding and that the decree was granted before her husband left for Europe, Bettina Girard, who had been married to George Ordway for three years, filed a bill of complaint for damages against her husband for his conduct during his absence.

George Ordway, of New York, is reported to be in Australia, where he has been engaged in a business venture.

BETTINA GIRARD'S INTELLIGENCE SET ASIDE.

THE BRIDGE BREAKERS, WHICH HAD BEEN VACATED AT WHITE PLAINS.

As a special term of the Supreme Court at White Plains yesterday Justice J. T. Mather granted the decree of divorce obtained in September, 1897, by those divorced against his wife, Bettina Girard, the actress, who was Elizabeth Ordway, the daughter of George Ordway of Washington. The application to set aside the decree was not opposed as the court did in July of last year.

After the announcement of the decree upon the ground that there was no concurrence of the proceeding and that the decree was granted before her husband left for Europe, Bettina Girard, who had been married to George Ordway for three years, filed a bill of complaint for damages against her husband for his conduct during his absence.

George Ordway, of New York, is reported to be in Australia, where he has been engaged in a business venture.

THE BRIDGE BREAKERS, WHICH HAD BEEN VACATED AT WHITE PLAINS.

As a special term of the Supreme Court at White

Plains yesterday Justice J. T. Mather granted the decree of divorce obtained in September, 1897, by those divorced against his wife, Bettina Girard, the actress, who was Elizabeth Ordway, the daughter of George Ordway of Washington. The application to set aside the decree was not opposed as the court did in July of last year.

After the announcement of the decree upon the ground that there was no concurrence of the proceeding and that the decree was granted before her husband left for Europe, Bettina Girard, who had been married to George Ordway for three years, filed a bill of complaint for damages against her husband for his conduct during his absence.

George Ordway, of New York, is reported to be in Australia, where he has been engaged in a business venture.

BETTINA GIRARD'S INTELLIGENCE SET ASIDE.

THE BRIDGE BREAKERS, WHICH HAD BEEN VACATED AT WHITE PLAINS.

As a special term of the Supreme Court at White

Plains yesterday Justice J. T. Mather granted the decree of divorce obtained in September, 1897, by those divorced against his wife, Bettina Girard, the actress, who was Elizabeth Ordway, the daughter of George Ordway of Washington. The application to set aside the decree was not opposed as the court did in July of last year.

After the announcement of the decree upon the ground that there was no concurrence of the proceeding and that the decree was granted before her husband left for Europe, Bettina Girard, who had been married to George Ordway for three years, filed a bill of complaint for damages against her husband for his conduct during his absence.

George Ordway, of New York, is reported to be in Australia, where he has been engaged in a business venture.

BETTINA GIRARD'S INTELLIGENCE SET ASIDE.

THE BRIDGE BREAKERS, WHICH HAD BEEN VACATED AT WHITE PLAINS.

As a special term of the Supreme Court at White

Plains yesterday Justice J. T. Mather granted the decree of divorce obtained in September, 1897, by those divorced against his wife, Bettina Girard, the actress, who was Elizabeth Ordway, the daughter of George Ordway of Washington. The application to set aside the decree was not opposed as the court did in July of last year.

After the announcement of the decree upon the ground that there was no concurrence of the proceeding and that the decree was granted before her husband left for Europe, Bettina Girard, who had been married to George Ordway for three years, filed a bill of complaint for damages against her husband for his conduct during his absence.

George Ordway, of New York, is reported to be in Australia, where he has been engaged in a business venture.

BETTINA GIRARD'S INTELLIGENCE SET ASIDE.

THE BRIDGE BREAKERS, WHICH HAD BEEN VACATED AT WHITE PLAINS.

As a special term of the Supreme Court at White

Plains yesterday Justice J. T. Mather granted the decree of divorce obtained in September, 1897, by those divorced against his wife, Bettina Girard, the actress, who was Elizabeth Ordway, the daughter of George Ordway of Washington. The application to set aside the decree was not opposed as the court did in July of last year.

After the announcement of the decree upon the ground that there was no concurrence of the proceeding and that the decree was granted before her husband left for Europe, Bettina Girard, who had been married to George Ordway for three years, filed a bill of complaint for damages against her husband for his conduct during his absence.

George Ordway, of New York, is reported to be in Australia, where he has been engaged in a business venture.

BETTINA GIRARD'S INTELLIGENCE SET ASIDE.

THE BRIDGE BREAKERS, WHICH HAD BEEN VACATED AT WHITE PLAINS.

As a special term of the Supreme Court at White

Plains yesterday Justice J. T. Mather granted the decree of divorce obtained in September, 1897, by those divorced against his wife, Bettina Girard, the actress, who was Elizabeth Ordway, the daughter of George Ordway of Washington. The application to set aside the decree was not opposed as the court did in July of last year.

After the announcement of the decree upon the ground that there was no concurrence of the proceeding and that the decree was granted before her husband left for Europe, Bettina Girard, who had been married to George Ordway for three years, filed a bill of complaint for damages against her husband for his conduct during his absence.

George Ordway, of New York, is reported to be in Australia, where he has been engaged in a business venture.

BETTINA GIRARD'S INTELLIGENCE SET ASIDE.

THE BRIDGE BREAKERS, WHICH HAD BEEN VACATED AT WHITE PLAINS.

As a special term of the Supreme Court at White

Plains yesterday Justice J. T. Mather granted the decree of divorce obtained in September, 1897, by those divorced against his wife, Bettina Girard, the actress, who was Elizabeth Ordway, the daughter of George Ordway of Washington. The application to set aside the decree was not opposed as the court did in July of last year.

After the announcement of the decree upon the ground that there was no concurrence of the proceeding and that the decree was granted before her husband left for Europe, Bettina Girard, who had been married to George Ordway for three years, filed a bill of complaint for damages against her husband for his conduct during his absence.

George Ordway, of New York, is reported to be in Australia, where he has been engaged in a business venture.

BETTINA GIRARD'S INTELLIGENCE SET ASIDE.

THE BRIDGE BREAKERS, WHICH HAD BEEN VACATED AT WHITE PLAINS.

As a special term of the Supreme Court at White

Plains yesterday Justice J. T. Mather granted the decree of divorce obtained in September, 1897, by those divorced against his wife, Bettina Girard, the actress, who was Elizabeth Ordway, the daughter of George Ordway of Washington. The application to set aside the decree was not opposed as the court did in July of last year.

After the announcement of the decree upon the ground that there was no concurrence of the proceeding and that the decree was granted before her husband left for Europe, Bettina Girard, who had been married to George Ordway for three years, filed a bill of complaint for damages against her husband for his conduct during his absence.

George Ordway, of New York, is reported to be in Australia, where he has been engaged in a business venture.

BETTINA GIRARD'S INTELLIGENCE SET ASIDE.

THE BRIDGE BREAKERS, WHICH HAD BEEN VACATED AT WHITE PLAINS.

As a special term of the Supreme Court at White

Plains yesterday Justice J. T. Mather granted the decree of divorce obtained in September, 1897, by those divorced against his wife, Bettina Girard, the actress, who was Elizabeth Ordway, the daughter of George Ordway of Washington. The application to set aside the decree was not opposed as the court did in July of last year.

After the announcement of the decree upon the ground that there was no concurrence of the proceeding and that the decree was granted before her husband left for Europe, Bettina Girard, who had been married to George Ordway for three years, filed a bill of complaint for damages against her husband for his conduct during his absence.

George Ordway, of New York, is reported to be in Australia, where he has been engaged in a business venture.

BETTINA GIRARD'S INTELLIGENCE SET ASIDE.

THE BRIDGE BREAKERS, WHICH HAD BEEN VACATED AT WHITE PLAINS.

As a special term of the Supreme Court at White

Plains yesterday Justice J. T. Mather granted the decree of divorce obtained in September, 1897, by those divorced against his wife, Bettina Girard, the actress, who was Elizabeth Ordway, the daughter of George Ordway of Washington. The application to set aside the decree was not opposed as the court did in July of last year.

After the announcement of the decree upon the ground that there was no concurrence of the proceeding and that the decree was granted before her husband left for Europe, Bettina Girard, who had been married to George Ordway for three years, filed a bill of complaint for damages against her husband for his conduct during his absence.

George Ordway, of New York, is reported to be in Australia, where he has been engaged in a business venture.